

Thermistors – Pilot Circuit Device

- Temperature sensing thermistors may be added to motor windings to activate a pilot circuit through a control module.
- Thermistors are normally applied in sets of (3) per motor, (1) per phase. Baldor can supply thermistors only or thermistors and control module packages.
- Thermistors and controls are typically compatible between different manufacturers. For specific questions, contact your Sales Team or Application Engineering.